THANK YOU TO OUR PROMOTIONAL PARTNERS
Welcome to the 2022-2023 Orlando Ballet Season!

I am so thrilled and grateful that you have joined us for this incredible production of Michael Pink’s Dracula. Michael is not just a master storyteller, but an inventive choreographer/director as well. I am in complete admiration of his ability to craft choreography and dramatic sequences that capture the imagination.

I have known Michael since working together in Boston more than 20 years ago. I was the chief ballet master for Boston Ballet, and we performed his production of The Hunchback From Notre Dame. I knew then that if I were to direct a ballet company, Michael Pink’s works would be a welcome addition to the repertoire.

I am especially thankful that Michael was able to be here for a good portion of the staging process. When dancers have the opportunity to work directly with the production’s creator, I find the work speaks in a more honest and genuine tone. I also want to thank Denis Malinkine for his creative and detailed work staging the production. The musical score by Philip Feeney combined with the dramatic lighting by David Grill elevate this production intensely, magnifying our emotions and reactions throughout the story.

I hope you enjoy all the thrills associated with this acclaimed production of Dracula, and that you won’t be too afraid to join us for the rest of this wonderful season!

Jorden Morris
Artistic Director, Orlando Ballet
Welcome to Orlando Ballet’s 49th Season!

At its core, ballet is storytelling through dance. Dancers move in ways that appear effortless, almost mystical to the rest of us mere mortals. We are transported by the beauty and mystery we see but cannot fully comprehend. A perfect vehicle through which to explore the haunting and timeless tale of Count Dracula – still as relevant now as when it was written so very long ago.

Themes that have been present throughout all of history and which continue today - forbidden love, compelling desire, and a healthy dose of fear are present throughout as we watch Jonathan, Lucy, and Mina fall to the powers of the Vampire – powers they cannot resist nor understand. We watch danger in all its many forms with horror and fascination – whether on the stage or elsewhere - playing out each October with many Halloween traditions and events.

Dracula will enthrall and entertain each of you and then, just as magically, you will return to our present world, back to the light and safety of your own homes until the next journey taken through dance when we can all meet once again.

Your patronage and that of our donors allows us to present elevated experiences such as what you will witness here with us for Michael Pink’s Dracula. You have asked for more immersive productions and we are answering the call throughout our 49th season and beyond. Our City’s Ballet is poised to excel now and long into the future.

I have been #Bitten by Orlando Ballet and this exquisite performance – on behalf of our entire organization, thank you for the generosity and support that makes this fantasy a reality every day,

Cheryl Collins

Synopsis

Prologue

Jonathan Harker’s mind is flooded with images of his terrifying experiences in Transylvania...in his delirium his nightmares have been dreadful; wolves, poison, blood, ghosts, demons...

Act I

CHARING CROSS STATION, LONDON

Mina and Dr. Van Helsing accompany Harker to the station as he sets off on his journey to see Count Dracula in Transylvania, where he is to conclude the Count’s purchase of properties in England. A mental patient, Renfield, causes a disturbing incident while being escorted through the station.

TRANSYLVANIA

Harker arrives in Transylvania where he watches as villagers enact a violent ritual of sacrifice to protect their village from the dangers that threaten on All Souls Night. The ceremony is interrupted by a sinister figure, Count Dracula’s coachman. Despite the desperate appeal of a bereaved woman, Harker continues his journey to Dracula’s castle.

CASTLE DRACULA

i) Arrival ii) Vampires iii) Dracula & Harker

The Count welcomes Harker into his home and, having made him comfortable, withdraws. Harker sinks into a reverie and is visited by three women who both fascinate and terrify him. His seduction is interrupted by an enraged Count Dracula who distracts the vampire women with a live blood offering. Dracula now begins his domination of the helpless Harker. As the climax of their union approaches, Harker’s scream of terror wakes him from his nightmare and he finds himself in the sanatorium with his fiancée’s arms around him.

Act II

WINTER GARDEN AT THE GRAND HOTEL, WHITBY

At a Tea Dance in the Grand Hotel, Mina’s friend Lucy dances with her suitors, while unbeknownst to them, a Russian ship approaches with a sinister and dangerous cargo. Only Harker is sensitive to the impending danger. A violent storm interrupts the dance, breaking open the windows, and at the height of its fury, the figure of Dracula appears on the terrace. The hotel guests are unaware of his presence, but Lucy is drawn to him. As the sound of the storm returns, Dracula disappears and Lucy is discovered dazed and almost unconscious.

THE SANATORIUM

Lucy is taken to Dr. Van Helsing’s clinic where her anxious fiancé and her friends visit her. As they leave for the night, Van Helsing, who has noticed the strange puncture marks on Lucy’s neck, takes the precaution of surrounding her with wild garlic. This does not prevent a second visit from Count Dracula. Later that night, Lucy’s body is discovered on the floor of her bedroom. The heartbroken men grieve the loss of this beautiful young woman. As her fiancé places a crucifix on her lips, Lucy attacks him violently before escaping into the night. She has become Nosferatu, one of the undead.

Act III

MINA’S ROOM
Mina, alone in the sanatorium, thinks of the terrible danger that is hovering over them all. After the departure of the men, she and Van Helsing are startled by the escaped mental patient, Renfield, who attacks Van Helsing and draws blood before being overpowered by the wardens. Concerned for Renfield’s suffering, Mina tries in vain to comfort and understand him. As she waits anxiously for the return of the men, she imagines with horror what her friend Lucy has become.

The men fail in their attempt to find Count Dracula, but later that night, as Harker sleeps, the Count enters Mina’s room. Van Helsing discovers them as Dracula suckles Mina with his own life blood. Van Helsing has no power to prevent the Count from escaping and taking an unconscious Mina with him.

Count Dracula has chosen to celebrate his union with Mina in the vault at Carfax Abbey. His heartbeat is the pulse that summons the Nosferatu to the ceremony. Renfield has become the sacrifice, and it is his blood that links the undead as they dance in adoration of their master. As the celebrants prepare for the consummation of the ritual, an explosion blasts through the crypt and daylight floods into the vault. Dracula can withstand the light, but his power is diminished. His adversaries pursue him and finally drive a stake through his heart. The survivors are left to come to terms with their experiences.

Please note that this performance has two intermissions.

DANCERS

JOHN ABENANTY | Brooklyn, New York

If someone had randomly asked John Abenanty as a child where he wanted to go to school, his answer might have come as a surprise. "When I was little, I wanted to study in the Bolshoi Theatre school." Real life lived up to the young dancer’s expectations - he has performed several times at the Bolshoi Theatre, something he never thought would actually happen.

John’s introduction to ballet came early from the Brooklyn Ballet Company’s public school outreach/scholarship program that placed ballet teachers in schools. He was selected for the program. John’s career has included performing as a soloist with South Carolina’s Columbia Classical Ballet, as well as with the State Ballet of Georgia in Tbilisi, the country’s capital city. He has performed Swan Lake’s Pas de Trois; Symphony in C 1st and 3rd movements choreographed by George Balanchine; the iconic Basilio from Don Quixote for the theatre’s opening gala event; Sarabande, Leah-3 Elders, choreographed by Alexei Ratmanski; and the Pas de Six from Giselle.

After joining the Sofia National Ballet company in Bulgaria under the direction of Sara-Nora Krysteva, he performed the roles of Conrad in Le Corsaire; Don Quixote’s Basilio; Tsuniga in Carmen, and the Peasant Pas De Deux in Giselle.

“Dance is such an important creative outlet. I dance because I love giving the audience an array of emotions in their experience,” he shared.

This is John Abenanty’s second season with Orlando Ballet.

ERIN ATKINSON | Amherst, Nova Scotia Canada

Striving to be a strong and muscular dancer while presenting delicate and controlled movement is what Erin Atkinson says she will continue to do throughout her career. As she begins her first season with Orlando Ballet, she says her role models -- ABT’s Polina Semionova and the Royal Ballet's Marielena Nunez – inspire her work ethic and discipline. "It’s mesmerizing to watch them.”

Erin, who is from Amherst, Nova Scotia, graduated in 2016 from the Professional Division Program at the Royal Winnipeg Ballet School (RWP), where she began her training in 2011. In her three years with RWP, she toured nationally and internationally working with choreographers such as Jera Wolf, Mark Godden, Mauricio Wainrot, Peter Quanz and Septime Weber.

In 2019, she moved to Wales and danced with Ballet Cymru. She later returned to her native Canada as a soloist with the Atlantic Ballet of Canada and also performed in London with the English National Ballet.

Her commitment is unwavering. "Whether it's a certain step, an injury, difficult choreography or that voice in your head – to work on it and not give up and then finally reach your goal is the most rewarding experience. That's important to me in my career."

This is Erin’s first season with Orlando Ballet.
ASHLEY BASZTO | Venice, Florida

Orlando Ballet's Ashley Baszto says emotionally impacting an audience through dance – especially when they need it most -- is "priceless."

Ashley started ballet at age three with the Sarasota Ballet Academy, a journey filled with classes, summer intensive programs, and huge support from her family. She also trained at the Rock School for Dance Education and the Miami City Ballet School. In 2010, Ashley was a finalist in Youth American Grand Prix New York and Jackson International Ballet Competition. She later placed second for her Pas de Deux at American Dance Competition and performed at the Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival Ballet Dance competition.

She is American Ballet Theatre ® certified to teach ballet to students from age two to adult at Orlando Ballet School. Now in her tenth season with Orlando Ballet, Ashley cherishes the opportunities to perform in a variety of challenging productions and working with the organization’s artistic team that includes dancers from around the world.

This is Ashley’s tenth season with Orlando Ballet.

MATTHEW CUNNINGHAM | Pleasant View, Utah

As the youngest child in his family, Matthew Cunningham mastered the art of negotiation early on. At age three, he saw The Nutcracker for the first time and immediately began campaigning his mother to let him take ballet lessons. He didn’t take no for an answer and by age five, he had started lessons in a small studio in Brigham City, Utah. "Ballet is in my soul," he says.

Matthew’s training continued at Ballet West Academy and Boston Ballet. He also participated in summer intensive programs at Houston Ballet, American Ballet Theatre®, and the prestigious Jacob’s Pillow in Massachusetts. He placed first in the Classical Division at the Youth America Grand Prix (YAGP) and was an Encouragement Prize Winner in the International Ballet Competition in Helsinki, Finland.

He joined Orlando Ballet's Second Company in 2015 and has performed in a variety of challenging roles including an evil stepsister in Cinderella; Mathieu in Jorden Morris’ Moulin Rouge®, The Ballet and Peter Pan in Morris’ production of Peter Pan. Matthew teaches Absolute Beginner Adult Ballet Class at Orlando Ballet School.

This is Matthew’s seventh season with Orlando Ballet.

AMIR DODARKHOJAYEV | Almaty, Kazakhstan

Choosing a career path was simple for Amir – he just followed in his mother’s footsteps – literally. "I was very little and saw my mother dancing on stage for the first time and said, "This is what I want to do."

Amir began studying ballet in his native country of Kazakhstan at the Seleznev School and spent four years before his advance training in Astana, his country’s capital city. He has competed in the Youth American Grand Prix (YAGP) in New York and received a scholarship from the Harid Conservatory where he trained for three years. He was also in the top 15 YAGP New York finals and in 2021 he earned First Place in YAGP in Dallas.

Amir joined the OBII company for its 2020-2021 season and this marks his first season as a company member with Orlando Ballet. Amir, who speaks Russian, Kazakh and English, says he is grateful for his success in working in a professional ballet company. He credits his mother for his career. "She was my first ballet teacher."

ISRAEL ZAVALETA ESCOBEDO | Mexico City, Mexico

When the family business is dance, you’re probably going to become a dancer. Just ask Israel Zavaleta Escobedo, who trained at his father’s Ballet Folklorico Texcoco de Noe, for Mexican Folklore dancing. At age 10, he asked his family if he could take a ballet class and the answer was yes. “That’s when everything started.”

Israel danced his first principal role last season as Mowgli in Toni Pimble’s Jungle Book along with the character Nick Carraway in Jorden Morris’ The Great Gatsby. Israel said seeing his coworkers applauding for him off stage was “a beautiful moment.”

In addition to his family’s studio, Israel trained at Academy de la Danza Mexicana, participated in summer intensive programs with Joffrey Ballet and Idyllwild Arts Academy. He placed second in International Dance Competition; Second Place at Concurso Nacional de Ballet Infantil y Juvenil de Mexico and first place in Tampa at the Young America Grand Prix. Israel is American Ballet Theatre (ABT) certified and teaches the Men’s Ballet Class for OBII, trainees and academy at Orlando Ballet School.

Orlando Ballet School Alumni ’18. This is Israel’s fifth season with Orlando Ballet.

RACHELE EUSEBIONE | Vercelli, Italy

Ballet was all young Rachele Eusebione could talk about after her grandmother took her to see her first live performance as a child in Vercelli, Italy. At age three she began taking ballet lessons. By age 11 she joined La Scala Ballet School directed by the renowned artist Frederic Olivieri. It’s there she worked with Patricia Neary, Sergei Virkarev, Vladimir Derevianko, Piotr Nardelly and Monique Lourdieres. Rachele went on to join the La Scala Ballet Company where she performed in the Ratmanki’s production of Swan Lake.

Rachele says her opportunities at Orlando Ballet have been vast and remarkable, including performing the role of Paquita in OB’s summer intensive program. But one of her most “unforgettable” experiences was performing the role of Wendy in Artistic Director Jorden Morris’ production of Peter Pan. “Most people believe there’s a lot of competition inside each company. For me, in this company we all care for, cherish and support each other. We are each other’s biggest fans.”

Orlando Ballet School Alumni ’20. This is Rachele’s fourth season with Orlando Ballet.

KELLIE FULTON | Ocean City, New Jersey

Sometimes mothers really do know best. Kellie Fulton just wanted to take Hip Hop dance lessons. However, her mother insisted she take ballet to focus on good technique. “I ended up loving that and sticking with it,” Kellie says.

The Ocean City, New Jersey native did take jazz and hip hop, but by age twelve she loved ballet and knew it would become her future. She attended the School of Pennsylvania Ballet before joining the second company. She was later accepted into the Butler Fellowship Program at Ballet Austin where she spent a year. Her career path also includes participating in summer programs at Boston Ballet School as well as at San Francisco Ballet School. Some of her favorites experiences include George Balanchine’s Jewels and Western Symphony; Angel Corella’s Don Quixote, Swan Lake and The Sleeping Beauty. Kellie says she is lucky to be surrounded by a group of hard-working people who support each other. “It is also rewarding to perform something you’ve put so much time, effort and hard work into. I believe that the arts are such an important and beautiful part of life and I’m so grateful to be able to bring that to our community in Orlando.”

This is Kellie’s fourth season with Orlando Ballet.

KATE GARDINIER | Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, USA

Kate Gardinier could have just as easily ended up on a professional soccer field rather than a dance stage as she pursued her interests. As a child, she began ballet because her soccer coach was constantly telling her to stop tap dancing on the field.

The Pennsylvania native started training as a child with Wexford Dance Academy and participated in summer intensive programs at Boston Ballet, Pacific Northwest Ballet and Canada’s National Ballet School. She also trained at the School of American Ballet at Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts.

At age 16, Kate began studying the Professional Training Program at the Washington School of Ballet, where as a trainee under the direction of Julie Kent, she had the opportunity to rehearse and perform in the company’s productions. Not only has Kate placed in the Top 12 at Youth America Grand Prix competitions in both Classical and Contemporary categories, she has also earned invitations to the finals. She was also a finalist in the Master Class Series at The Kennedy Center. Like her colleagues, Kate lives a disciplined life and works hard. “I love that dance pushes me outside my comfort zone every day,” Gardinier says. “Dance makes me happy.”

This is Kate’s first season with Orlando Ballet.

THOMAS GERHARDT | Weymouth, Dorset England

As a self-described “reserved” personality, Thomas says ballet offers a positive way to express his thoughts and emotions, which in turn contribute to his feeling physically and mentally positive.

He began dancing at age two, training at a local dance school in his native England before joining the Royal Ballet School’s Junior Associate Program. He joined the Royal Ballet School at age 11 and performed in The Nutcracker and The Sleeping Beauty. He soon graduated into the Royal Ballet Upper School and worked with British choreographer Ashley Page and later with Carlos Acosta and the Birmingham Royal Ballet. Thomas says he is most grateful for his years with the Royal Ballet because of the knowledge and relationships he acquired as he moves forward as a professional ballet dancer.

Orlando Ballet School Alumni ‘22. This is Thomas’ first season with Orlando Ballet.

KENNA GOLD | Mission Viejo, California

Kenna Gold likes to move – it’s why she’s a ballet dancer as well as a personal trainer in her spare time. “I love the combination of beauty and athleticism that is required to be a dancer.”

At age 15, the California native moved to Philadelphia to train at The Rock School for Dance Education on a full scholarship. She performed lead roles in The Nutcracker and contemporary ballets. As a trainee with Orlando Ballet, she danced the role of Swanilda an excerpt from Coppelia, and in Robert Hill’s Requiem. She has competed and placed in Youth America Grand Prix regionals including earning First Place in Ensemble at the New York City finals. She has also participated in summer programs at American Ballet Theatre®, Miami City Ballet, Houston Ballet, Joffrey Chicago and Bolshoi Ballet in Russia.

Kenna says she fell in love with ballet when she began dancing at age three. Since then, she says her career has been rewarding, and includes such as performing in the role of Myrtha in Giselle and playing Daisy in Jorden Morris’ The Great Gatsby both here in Orlando. “I love challenging myself and seeing hard work payoff on stage.”

Orlando Ballet School Alumni ‘20. This is Kenna’s second season as a company member with Orlando Ballet.
OLIVIA MCALPINE | Toronto, Ontario

Olivia McAlpine describes dance as an exercise in creative analysis and a rush of adrenaline. “I dance because it requires every part of me, just like everyday life.” Born and raised in Toronto, Ontario, Olivia began training professionally at age 11 at Canada’s National Ballet School. That’s where she “found my home.”

After graduating, Olivia joined Sarasota Ballet as a member of the Studio Company and within two years was promoted to Apprentice. There she performed In George Balanchine’s Diamonds, Stars and Stripes, Western Symphony and Serenade as well as Sir Kenneth MacMillan’s Las Hermanas and Elite Syncopations. Additionally, she has danced Sir Peter Wright’s Giselle, Martha Graham’s Appalachian Spring, and Mark Morris’ The Letter V.

Olivia’s training also includes participating in summer exchange programs in England as well as American Ballet Theatre’s Summer Intensive program. Despite the demands of her dancing career, Olivia is also studying remotely at Ontario College of Art and Design to earn her bachelor of Fine Arts in Creative Writing degree.

This is Olivia’s first season with Orlando Ballet.

ANAMARIE MCGINN | Marathon Key, Florida

Love strikes when you least expect it. Fully intending to dance on Broadway, Anamarie McGinn fell in love with ballet at age 17 after taking a class with renowned teacher David Howard. “I was completely hooked.”

She quickly began classical ballet training at Ballet Florida in West Palm Beach and later became a trainee at Orlando Ballet School under the direction of Fernando Bujones who promoted her to company member just one year later. She has also participated in summer programs with American Ballet Theatre, Boston Ballet and the Joffrey Ballet School. “I truly just fell in love with the art form and automatically changed my path to strictly ballet.”

Anamarie earned a Gold Medal at the American Dance Competition as well as a Silver Medal in contemporary. She also received the Fernando Bujones Excellence Award. In addition to earning her Bachelor of Arts degree in Liberal Arts, she is American Ballet Theatre certified to teach and instructs ballet and jazz at Orlando Ballet School. She also serves as the Company Rehearsal Assistant and Shoe Manager.

This is Anamarie’s 18th season with Orlando Ballet.

FRANCIS MIHM | Dubuque, Iowa

For Francis Mihm, ballet is about brotherhood. Growing up in the Iowa heartland, he was introduced to dance after accepting an invitation to try ballet with a friend whose older brothers were already studying dance. He has been dancing ever since. Francis’ younger brother followed in his footsteps. Francis says he and his brother continue to support each other and their respective careers.

Francis began his training at the Heartland Academy under Marina O’Rourke and Megan MacLeod, and participated in numerous summer intensive programs at American Ballet Theater® and Milwaukee Ballet. He also attended Butler College where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Dance Arts Administration. The academic program included performing in several lead roles including Swan Lake, Giselle, Sleeping Beauty along with contemporary works by Paul Taylor and Gerald Arpino. While dancing with OBII, Francis performed in Artistic Director Jorden Morris’ wildly popular productions of Moulin Rouge®, The Ballet and Peter Pan. Francis said dancers’ discipline and athleticism are often not recognized when ballet is done well. “Good ballet should look effortless; the ease of movement is what makes it so special.”

Orlando Ballet School Alumni ‘22. This is Francis first season with Orlando Ballet.
HITOMI NAKAMURA | Tokyo, Japan

For some, the thought of performing live is terrifying but for the admittedly shy Hitomi Nakamura dancing on stage is the perfect place for her to express herself. “I have no hesitation dancing in front of an audience. For me, dance is the most comfortable way to speak.”

A native of Japan, Hitomi has competed around the world including placing first in the Senior Category at Ballet Competition in Tokyo in 2011. She also earned First Place in the Ensemble Category at Youth America Grand Prix NYC final. Hitomi trained at Kaneta Kouno Ballet Academy in Japan and Houston Ballet’s Ben Stevenson Academy. Some of her favorite roles include Cinderella in Victoria Morgan’s Cinderella, the Russian Girl in George Balanchine’s Serenade and Giselle in Giselle. Last season, she danced the principal role of Daisy Buchanan in Jorden Morris’ The Great Gatsby. Hitomi says that at the height of the pandemic, dancing was difficult due to contact challenges, especially when partnering. “It seemed impossible to do the job in that situation at first, but the whole organization worked together to bring the arts back.

Orlando Ballet School Alumni ’14. This is Hitomi’s eighth season with Orlando Ballet.

SAKI OGAWA | Chiba, Japan

The wonder of dance is how it allows a performer to speak without words, which is one of the reasons Saki Ogawa loves the art. If people watching dance understand the message, it’s proof that dance takes them beyond words, she says.

Saki began her training at age three at Kayo Mafune Classic Ballet School in her native Japan. She later came to Orlando Ballet School’s Summer Intensive program through a full scholarship and remained to become a trainee at Orlando Ballet Academy. She performed in a variety of productions including Robert Hill’s Vampire’s Ball, The Nutcracker, Cinderella, and Hill’s Requiem. She also performed in The First One choreographed by Stefano Napp. Two years ago, she was promoted to Orlando Ballet’s Second Company and last year marked her first season as Apprentice with the main company. Saki placed in the top 12 in senior category at Youth America Grand Prix in Tampa and took First Place at Educational Ballet Competition in Japan in 2019. She wants audiences to know that ballet has something for everyone from classical productions the telling of familiar stories such as Jorden Morris’ The Great Gatsby and Moulin Rouge®, the Ballet. “I hope more people who haven’t ever seen ballet will come to our shows and realize that there is so much more to ballet.”

Orlando Ballet School Alumni ’22. This is Saki’s first season with Orlando Ballet.

ALBERTO PEÑALVER | Spain

Alberto Penalver began formal ballet training when he was eight years old in Spain, but even before that he had “always been dancing around the house,” until his mother asked him if he would be interested in auditioning for dance school. “I said yes, and I went in shorts and sneakers and almost didn’t pass.”

After studying with the Conservatorio Profesional de Danza of Murcia, he continued his training with John Cranko Schule in Germany. He then attended the School of America Ballet at Lincoln Center. Alberto joined the Pacific Northwest Ballet Professional Division program and later Tulsa Ballet II where he danced with the main company several times. Before joining Orlando Ballet, Alberto was a company member with Ballet Arizona where he performed in several world premieres. Over his career, he has danced ballets choreographed by George Balanchine, August Bournoville, Justin Peck, Frederick Ashton, Ib Anderson, Edwaard Liand and Peter Boal to name a few. Alberto enjoys other artistic interests including painting and photography. Ballet, and dance in general, remain at the core of his being. “I dance because I love performing and creating art with movement.” This is Alberto’s first year with Orlando Ballet.
Jillian Price loves being in the sun, and she shines in the spotlight when dancing. “I dance because I love to perform. Performing in front of an audience is such a vulnerable yet rewarding feeling.” Her rewards are plenty.

Jillian spent eight years with The Rock School for Dance Education in Philadelphia and participated in two intensive programs with Orlando Ballet before joining OBII. It didn’t take long for her to be promoted to Apprentice and soon after to full company member in the 2019-2022 season. She has competed and placed several times in Youth American Grand Prix semi-finals and at the New York City finals.

She notes that ballet dancers are mistaken for being thin and fragile; far from it. “Ballet requires so much strength – both physical and mental.” She relies on her strength for some of her favorite roles including performing Myrtha in Giselle. Describing it as the “hardest, most rewarding role,” she’s performed so far, she adds, “It’s a very physically demanding role, but there was no better feeling than stepping out on stage for Myrtha’s first entrance.”

Orlando Ballet School Alumni ’19. This is Jillian’s fifth season with Orlando Ballet.

Kate-Lynn Robichaux remembers the Bob Carr Auditorium; it’s where she attended Orlando Ballet’s 30th Anniversary Gala with her mother. And it’s where she “fell in love” with dancing. “I just wanted to be like the ballerina I saw on stage that night.” And today she is living her dream.

After taking her first summer training program at age 12 at Orlando Ballet, she decided to pursue ballet as her career. She has trained at Florida Ballet School with Paula Núñez and Osmany Montano; has earned a Gold Medal at the 2010 Youth American Grand Prix Regionals and was Senior Division winner at ADC in 2011.

In addition to dancing in Orlando Ballet’s regular seasons, Kate-Lynn has danced with Cirque de Soleil and performed the iconic Dying Swan in Beautiful Together, a community tribute to the victims of the Pulse Nightclub tragedy. Two of her favorite roles include Juliet in Robert Hill’s Romeo & Juliet and Nancy in Val Caniparoli’s A Cinderella Story performed with a live jazz band. Her most rewarding dance experience, she notes, is being asked to perform Twyla Tharp’s Sinatra Suite with Marcelo Gomes at the London Colosseum for Ivan Putrov’s gala performance.

Kate-Lynn says the person who inspires her most is her mother. “She sacrificed the world for me to dance and believes in me more than anyone. She has the most generous heart and I hope to be half the woman she is one day.”

Orlando Ballet School Alumni ’12. This is Kate-Lynn’s eleventh season with Orlando Ballet.
NATHAN ROWELL | Eugene, Oregon

For Nathan Rowell, ballet is about respect – respect for the art form, the discipline and the people who pioneered it so very long ago. After beginning his training at age seven when he took a free boys’ class in his hometown of Eugene, Oregon he became more intrigued with the artistry of ballet. “I love how dance builds a community wherever it goes and has the potential to touch people deeply.”

Nathan joined the Houston Ballet Academy at age 17 where he worked for two years in the professional division under Claudio Munoz and Melissa Bowman. He later trained with Texas Ballet Theatre’s Studio Training Company before joining Orlando Ballet II last season. And last season proved to be a busy one; Nathan danced the role of George B. Wilson in Jorden Morris’ The Great Gatsby and in “Confronting Genius” created by guest choreographer Heath Gill. Nathan’s artistic interests include playing piano. “I find it helps my musicality in ballet movement while also allowing me to venture outside my comfort zone.”

Orlando Ballet School Alumni ’21. This is Nathan’s second season with Orlando Ballet.

TREVOR STALCUP | Culpeper, Virginia

Ballet isn’t a hobby; it’s a profession that motivates dancers to explore their creativity and their physical limits as athletes. That’s how dancer Trevor Stalcup explains what he does for living. Trevor began his ballet training at age 16 after being encouragement by a friend to try a class. Dance stuck with him.

A native of Virginia, he trained with Amber Rose Ballet before joining the Richmond Ballet where, as a trainee, he performed and toured with the company for two years. He went on to join Texas Ballet Theatre’s Corps de Ballet working under Ben Stevenson, Tim O’Keefe and Li Anlin. Last season, at Orlando Ballet, he performed the role of Tom Buchanan in Jorden Morris’ The Great Gatsby. He is currently studying for his bachelor’s degree in Business. Trevor appreciates the hard work associated with dance and says he enjoys all that is required for a successful ballet career, including cross training regularly at the gym.

This is Trevor’s second season with Orlando Ballet.

JAYSAN STINNETT | Miami, Florida

As you watch Jaysan Stinnett on stage, know that as he is performing, he is also falling in love with the art of dance. He says it happens every time he performs. “The exhilaration of performing in front of an audience makes me fall in love with the art form even more, each time.”

This son of retired professional ballet dancers didn’t start training until around age 13 after he asked to take lessons. He began training at the Thomas Armor Youth Ballet in Miami and later became a student at Harid Conservatory, studying there until he joined Orlando Ballet’s company three years ago. Over the course of his training, Jaysan has received several full scholarships to summer programs at American Ballet School, Ellison Ballet, Bolshoi Ballet Academy, Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre, San Francisco Ballet and Houston Ballet.

So far, the high point of his career has been dancing the role of Albrecht in Orlando Ballet’s Giselle. “Albrecht is a role that I have dreamt of performing with a professional company ever since I fell in love with ballet,” adding that he feels lucky having the opportunity to dance the role so early in his professional career.

This is Jaysan’s fourth season with Orlando Ballet.
DANCERS

MCKENZIE THOMAS | Monument, Colorado

Not even her beloved early dance training in contemporary, jazz and tap could stop McKenzie Thomas from choosing ballet as a career. After a summer intensive program she took at age 15 McKenzie says, “I knew from that moment that’s what I wanted to do.”

The Colorado native’s ballet training began at Samuel Ballet School and continued at Master Ballet Academy in Scottsdale, AZ under the direction of Slawomir and Irena Wozniak. She was a company member of Colorado Ballet from 2018-2021 where one of her favorite performances was Balanchine's Serenade at Vail Dance Festival.

Her competitive successes include earning a Bronze Medal at 2021 World Ballet Competition, Top 12 finalist at American Dance Competition, International Ballet Competition, First Place Pas de Deux at Youth American Grand Prix (YAGP) in Phoenix, YAGP Denver Top 12 and YAGP NYC finalist.

This is McKenzie’s second season with Orlando Ballet.

DAHLIA DENICORE | Leesburg, Virginia

“Driven” describes Dahlia Denicore’s focus on living her dream of becoming a ballerina. Despite beginning professional training later than most, Dahlia was intent on developing her artistic and technical skills in order to join a professional dance company.

Dahlia’s professional training began just two years ago at the San Francisco Ballet School. Dahlia danced through high school at the Loudoun School of Ballet in her native Virginia and completed a summer intensive with Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre. Dahlia packed in any and all training opportunities, including competitions that supported her goals. Between 2017 and 2020, Dahlia placed first in Junior Classical and third in Junior Contemporary at Youth America Grand Prix regionals; placed second in Senior Contemporary and Top 12 Senior Classical; and, in 2020, placed in Top 12 Senior Classical and Third in Senior Contemporary. Dahlia was also a finalist in the 2020 New York City Dance Alliance National Dance Discovery Showcase and received a Judge’s invitation to help with ballet choreography in a Broadway show. Shortly after being accepted in Orlando Ballet’s second company, Dahlia was promoted to Apprentice in the main company. “I am living a dream!”, says Dahlia, who hopes to inspire others to “never give up on their goals, whatever the odds.”

Orlando Ballet School Alumni ’22. This is Dahlia’s first season with Orlando Ballet.

CHARLIE MELLOR | Peterborough, Cambridgeshire England

It’s hard to dismiss the influence of television when Charlie Mellor reveals that at age three, he started dancing in front of the TV which led to him begging his parents to take him to dance class. His persistence paid off; he began training at Tring Park School for the Performing Arts in his native England. During his time there, he won First Place in the Cecchitte Children’s Award at Sadler Wells and was runner up for the Mabel Ryan Junior Award one year later.

Beyond his schooling Charlie was invited to perform for Dance Power in support of the British Red Cross at Theatre Royal, Drury Lane and later in Mathew Bourne’s production of Romeo and Juliet at the Marlow Theatre. In 2019, his TV experience came full circle when he performed a pas de deux from La Fille Mal Gardee in the BBC Young Dancer of the Year final which was broadcast on BBC4.

Charlie notes that ballet is physically and mentally tough. “We need to remember a lot of choreography and often need to learn multiple spots; it requires a lot of focus and discipline.” He adds, “After the show when you feel like you’ve put on the best performance possible you know that all the rehearsals and hard work has paid off.”

Orlando Ballet School Alumni ’22. This is Charlie’s first season with Orlando Ballet.

DAVID WEST | Waldwick, New Jersey

Sports and ballet have much in common, including discipline and athleticism – two elements that lured David West from sports to ballet. At age 10, David began classical ballet training at the Petrov Valley School in New Jersey under the direction of Eugene Petrov. “He took me under his wing and always had my best interests in mind.”

David’s career took him to competitions at Youth American Grand Prix semi-finals where he placed in the junior and senior categories and ultimately in the finals. In 2019, he was offered a full scholarship to Boston Ballet’s training program where he performed with the main company in Giselle and The Nutcracker. After just one year, he was offered a spot in their new post graduate program. David has also participated in a dance film project entitled Ballet Unleashed, a collaboration of eight dancers from schools around the world.

David says that at this point, his most rewarding experience is performing the role of "DJ" in Val Caniparoli’s "Lambarena", with Orlando Ballet last season. “This was my first major role in a professional company and being able to perform it for the original choreographer made the whole experience even more magical.”

Orlando Ballet School Alumni ’22. This is David’s first season with Orlando Ballet.

As founding Chair of the University of Central Florida’s School of Visual Arts and Design as well as an internationally lauded painter with solo exhibitions held throughout the US, Europe, and the Caribbean, 85-year old Steve Lotz never imagined that dance would play such an important role in his life.

“It was my wife’s idea to try Gentle BeMoved® class here at the Beardall Center and we are so glad we did!” said Lotz. “I suffered severe brain damage from a car accident years ago and my cerebral cortex was ruined. I am not a great dancer, but I find that the dancing helps with my short-term memory issues.”

Now in its second year of enriching the quality of life for Central Florida seniors through the transformative power of dance at Orlando area senior centers, and the Roth and Rosen Family Jewish Community Centers, Gentle BeMoved® is designed for seniors and individuals with limited cognitive and physical mobility. Serving 165 seniors in 2021-22, Gentle BeMoved® is generously funded by the City of Orlando’s Community Investment Grant Program and The Pargh Foundation.

The tremendous impact of Orlando Ballet’s partnership with the City of Orlando and the Pargh Foundation to bring Gentle BeMoved® to our community’s seniors free of charge cannot be overstated. By providing our region’s senior citizens with a free, fun, and mentally and physically beneficial fitness program, Gentle BeMoved® has made a positive impact on the physical and mental well-being of its participants.
As reported in a groundbreaking study in the New England Journal of Medicine in 2018, not only does stimulating the mind through dance ward off Alzheimer’s Disease and other forms of dementia, it increases cognitive acuity and self-confidence, helps to alleviate anxiety and depression, and reduces social isolation and loneliness. In addition, dancing integrates several brain functions at once – kinesthetic, rational, musical, and emotional – dramatically increasing neural connectivity and pathways.

The impact of Gentle BeMoved® on Orlando seniors has been palpable, with the majority of participants stating that not only do they feel physically better as a result of class, but also mentally and emotionally lifted as a result of the social aspect of the program.

“I do whatever my wife Gretchen tells me,” laughs Lotz. “We can’t wait to come back to class next week!”

Our funders and partners are crucial in helping us fulfill our mission and vision of making dance accessible to all Central Floridians. Thank you to the City of Orlando and the Pargh Foundation for making a difference in the vitality of our region and lives of our residents!
